STATEMENT OF FACTS

11. At all dates herein, plaintiffs, KENNETH BAKER, BARBARA BAKER, CAMDEN M. BAKER, and A. B., Minor, by Parent BARBARA BAKER, resided at 5721 S. Washtenaw Avenue in Chicago, Illinois. CAMDEN M. BAKER is an adult child and A.B. is a minor child of KENNETH BAKER and BARBARA BAKER.

12. RELIABLE RECOVERY is a company that repossesses property for clients.

13. On January 11, 2010, at approximately 5:00 AM, two men believed to be defendants GHIDOTTI and JURKOVIC, employees of RELIABLE RECOVERY, entered onto the premises of 5721 S. Washtenaw Avenue without permission and without legal cause. They set off the burglar alarm, apparently by opening the front door to the home.

14. On or about January 12, 2010, at approximately 6:30 AM, two men believed to be defendants GHIDOTTI and JURKOVIC were peeping through the windows of 5721 S. Washtenaw Avenue in Chicago, Illinois, and scared plaintiff A.B., who was 13 years old. GHIDOTTI and JURKOVIC left a business card.

15. Plaintiffs did not know who GHIDOTTI and JURKOVIC were or what they wanted, and were frightened.

16. On January 27, 2010, two men believed to be defendants GHIDOTTI and JURKOVIC again opened the front door to the home at 5721 S. Washtenaw Avenue, setting off the burglar alarm. The police responded to the burglar alarm, and plaintiffs CAMDEN M. BAKER and A.B. found the police in their home, with guns drawn. They were questioned by the police. The police then left.

17. On February 1, 2010, at 3:30 AM., two men believed to be defendants GHIDOTTI and JURKOVIC rang the doorbell, awakening the members of BAKER family.

18. Thinking there must be some emergency, plaintiff KENNETH BAKER answered the door. He saw a man believed to be GHIDOTTI with a flashlight on the porch. Another man believed to be JURKOVIC was in a truck.

19. The white man believed to be GHIDOTTI asked for Juanita, who is KENNETH BAKER's adult daughter, and also asked about a Chevy vehicle.

20. KENNETH BAKER told defendants that he could not help them and he told them to go away because they were on private property. Plaintiff went back inside.

21. KENNETH BAKER, his wife, BARBARA BAKER, his adult child, CAMDEN M. BAKER, and his minor child, A.B. were all home at the time.

22. A few minutes later, a female and male police officer, believed to be defendants LINDGREN and VERA, arrived and claimed that GHIDOTTI has said that KENNETH BAKER had threatened him with a gun.

23. KENNETH BAKER denied threatening anyone with a gun.

24. Approximately seven additional officers then arrived, including a Sergeant, believed to be defendant MARTIN, and officers believed to be defendants CABRALES, FLORES, ESCAMILLA, and DOODY. The names of the other officers are unknown.

25. GHIDOTTI admitted to the officers, including the Sergeant, that KENNETH BAKER did not pull a gun on him.

26. Despite the admission, defendant officers did nothing to further investigate a situation that was at best a civil dispute and in which it was clear that the complainant, GHIDOTTI, was not telling the truth.

27. Defendant officers proceeded to enter the home, without permission and without a warrant. Some officers went into the back yard and looked into the garage with a flashlight.

28. Defendant police officers proceeded to thoroughly search the home

29. Plaintiffs were detained during the search. They were terrified.

30. A male officer took plaintiff BARBARA BAKER alone into a bedroom. She protested because she was scared to go alone in her nightclothes into a bedroom with a male officer. The officer questioned her about the car defendants GHIDOTTI and JURKOVIC were looking for.

31. While the approximately nine officers searching his home, plaintiff KENNETH BAKER showed defendant officers his Firearm Owner's Identification Card and said that he owned a legal weapon, a shotgun.

32. Defendant officers obtained possession of the legally owned shotgun, which was under a mattress.

33. Defendant officers, including a person believed to be Sgt. MARTIN, began aggressively bargaining with plaintiff KENNETH BAKER on behalf of the repossession company. Mr. BAKER was told that if he told the repossession men where his daughter Juanita lived, defendant officers would let him go and not arrest him.

34. After defendant police officers relentlessly pressured and grilled KENNETH BAKER about Juanita's car, they decided to arrest him, knowing that GHIDOTTI's claim of an assault by KENNETH BAKER was untrue, by GHIDOTTI's own admission.

35. Defendant police officers and GHIDOTTI and JURKOVIC were in the BAKER home for an hour or more, detaining KENNETH BAKER, his wife, and two daughters, the entire time.

36. Individual defendant officers named in this action either actively participated in the detention, the arrest, and the search of plaintiffs, or they passively failed to intervene to prevent the unconstitutional conduct.

37. Defendant police officers took KENNETH BAKER into formal custody and charged him with aggravated assault and having an expired registration for his legally owned shotgun. Plaintiff was booked, processed, and charged with the false charges, and was wrongfully incarcerated.

38. Defendant WALSH was the supervising officer who reviewed the facts with the arresting officers and approved, condoned, or turned a blind eye to the lack of probable cause for KENNETH BAKER's arrest and detention. He played a significant role in the decision to charge and prosecute Mr. BAKER.

39. KENNETH BAKER developed chest pains while in custody of defendant officers because of a heart condition. Defendants did not provide medical treatment. However, they allowed plaintiff BARBARA BAKER to bring her husband his heart medicine.

40. There was a favorable termination of the criminal charges against plaintiff KENNETH BAKER in the criminal court.

41. The above acts, as well as other harassing, humiliating, and insulting acts by the individual defendants, were committed with knowledge of the individual defendants and by agreement of said defendants to act in concert to violate the constitutional rights of plaintiff.

42. By reason of the above-described acts and omissions of defendants, plaintiffs sustained injuries, humiliation, and indignities, and suffered great mental and emotional pain and suffering, all to their damage.

43. The aforementioned acts of the defendant police officers were willful, wanton, malicious, oppressive, and done with reckless indifference to and/or callous disregard for plaintiffs' rights and justify the awarding of exemplary and punitive damages.

44. By reason of the above-described acts and omissions of the individual defendants, plaintiffs were required to retain an attorney to institute, prosecute and render legal assistance to them in the within action, so that they might vindicate the loss and impairment of their rights. By reason thereof, plaintiffs request payment by defendants of a reasonable sum for attorneys' fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1988, the Equal Access to Justice Act, or any other provision set by law.
